GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1 General

- a) The following sales and delivery conditions apply between Aqua Art AG (here forth referred to as AquaArt) and their customers, in as far as other conditions are not agreed to in writing.
- b) Anomalous customer purchase conditions require the legal effect of formally written approval from AquaArt.

2 Proposal and contract conclusion

- a) Proposals, with respect to prices and delivery contingencies, are subject to confirmation.
- b) Orders, which are in accordance with the conditions of contract and the scope of delivery, will be legally binding upon the written confirmation of AquaArt. Subsidiary agreements and verbal declarations require the validation of the written confirmation.
- c) Design and realization modifications, including during the delivery phase, are subject to change without notice.
- d) Images, notations, weight and output specifications in proposals and proposal documentation are only approximately authoritative, in that they are not formally designated as binding.
- e) AquaArt reserves to itself the proprietorship and copyrights on pictures, conceptual submissions, as well as other compositions, proposal and consulting documentation, and may not be accessed by third parties without the authorization of AquaArt.
- f) AquaArt reserves itself the right to charge for prototypes or samples from finished good items or documentation materials.

3 Prices, handling charges, terms of payment

- a) Without special agreement, prices are subject to confirmation, and as for handling charges, terms of payment and the right of return, are based on
  - General terms and conditions, including delivery conditions, for sale to end-users,
  - Conditions for resellers/retailers/for export
  - Conditions in individual contracts and proposals.
- b) In all cases, AquaArt reserves itself the right, to deliver orders always upon prepayment, cash on delivery, accreditation or letter of credit.
- c) If not formally specified, packaging is free of charge and will be redeemed by AquaArt, whereby AquaArt reserves itself the right to charge a deposit for the packaging/reusable containers.

4 Handling and delivery

- a) No particular handling method is prescribed, and so the goods will be sent via means determined to be at best-price, and without guarantee for safest, cheapest and quickest delivery.

- b) All consignments travel at the cost and risk of the purchaser. Claims for damages or loss due to delivery are to be made with the transport company. Damages due to delivery are to be reported directly upon arrival of the consignment at the train station or post office.

5 Terms of delivery

They will be complied with as much as possible, but they are not binding. AquaArt will not pay damages for all possible transgressions.

6 Settlements

AquaArt executes fixed orders only for a specified time period. If the above-mentioned order terms are not complied with, AquaArt is entitled to deliver the goods as settlement or to annul the contract.

7 Guaranty

The purchaser undertakes, prior to use, to follow the supplied instructions for use.

For defects – whether material or workmanship-related – that arise over time and with appropriate use, AquaArt will provide a refund or a free repair. Other types of claims for damages will not be accepted.

For the showerhead, “ClicDouche“, we offer a 5-year guaranty against calcination via water emission.

8 Complaints

Complaints about the number of units, weight or condition of the goods, are to be made within 10 days upon receipt.

9 Return consignments

They will only be accepted upon prior agreement, and the finished goods will in each case be fully accounted for according to each customer respectively. Credits are based on a deduction for administrative costs of 10% of the goods' net value respectively.

10 Jurisdiction

All possible disputes are to be settled according to Swiss law. The Jurisdiction is Zurich.

12. Severability Clause

Should any of the above terms be voidable or invalidated, the rest of the terms remain unviolated by this invalidation and remain furthermore, fully enforceable.
